The 1958 Jay Dee

Presented by
The Senior Class
Regional High School
Manassas, Virginia

Foreword

We, the Class of 1958, proudly present the 1958 Edition of "The Jay Dee."

We hope that it will be a remembrance of our profitable and enjoyable days spent at Regional, and that the future classes will have as many pleasant and happy experiences.

THE CLASS OF 1958

Dedication

To our parents and guardians whose sacrifices and understanding have made it possible that our dreams and aspirations become realities, and whose love and understanding have made us strive to achieve our goal, we the class of 1958, fondly dedicate the 1958 Edition of the "Jay Dee."

Bring up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it.

Principal's Message

Education in this space age calls for products of high technological and social achievements. Students must not forget the great spiritual significance of education. Harmonious training includes experiences in technology and the humanities. Global and space conditions are calling for qualitative as well as quantitative learning. Manassas graduates should strive for goals pointing toward a peaceful world in which to live.

Class History

It was a bright sunny day, September 6, 1953, that we, the graduating class entered the Manassas Regional to begin our high school career.

We received the best of hospitality from our teachers, principal and fellow students.

Our first year as President, we chose Joyce Hunter; Secretary, Clarice Phillips; Treasurer, Rita Coleman. Our enrollment was close to one hundred twenty-five. Our sponsors were Mr. W. Chapel, Mr. C. Morris, Mrs. R. Barnes, Mr. R. Jackson, Mr. M. Samuel and Mr. G. Witt. The year passed swiftly and we were soon out for summer vacation.

We returned in smaller numbers on September 7, 1954. We had lost some of our members since L. P. Jackson had opened its doors to the Fairfax students.

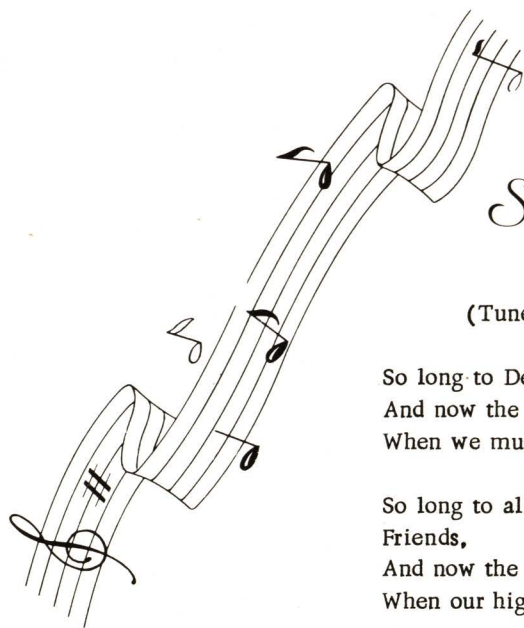

We were divided into two groups. As President, we elected Costello Green; Secretary, Joyce Johnson; and Treasurer, Nellie Barbour. Our sponsors were Mrs. R. Barnes, and Mr. J. Shiver. Our year was successful and before we knew it we were through one more year.

On September 6, 1955, we returned full of pep and vigor. We were now sophomores. For President, Dorothy Scott; Secretary, Rita Coleman; Treasurer, Nellie Barbour. Our sponsors were Mrs. R. Barnes and Mr. M. Wilkerson. We remember this year quite clearly, we won Miss Homecoming Contest, and also third place in the May Day Contest. We were out for the summer again.

It was September 6, 1956, we entered our Junior year. For President, we elected Jacqueline Washington; Secretary, Bernice Long; Treasurer, James Ferrell. Our sponsor was Mr. M. Wilkerson. This year stands out vividly as we remember our Paris scene Prom. We left that spring with high expectation for the following school year.

This was a long awaited day, September 3, 1957. We entered Dear Manassas, as dignified Seniors. Our sponsor was Mr. R. Fitzgerald. As President, we elected Jacqueline Washington; Secretary, Dorothy Scott; Treasurer, Costello Green. This year we worked harder than ever striving to reach our goal to receive a high school diploma.

So Long

(Tune of: Blue Moon)

So long to Dear Manassas High,
And now the time has come,
When we must say Good-by.

So long to all our Schoolmates and Friends,
And now the hour arrives,
When our high school days must end.

CHORUS

We hate to leave this Dear Old School,
Whose teachers taught us the Golden Rule,
Who taught us how to say our A B C's,
To think for ourselves,
Wherever we may be.

So long to Dear Manassas High,
And now the time has come,
When we must say Good-By.

Last Will and Testament

The Senior Class of '58, now descending from the lofty walls of Regional High School to reach a higher goal, pause to make the following bequests:

- To Dorsey Nickens, Floyd Bundy wills his mustache.
- To Gwendolyn Porter, Peggy Jackson wills her quietness.
- To Barbara Anderson, Rebecca Marshall wills her typing ability.
- To Nellie Gillespie, Mattie Williams wills her daintiness.
- To Dorothy Johnson, Joyce Johnson wills her ability to tell the truth at all times.
- To Robert Bates, Pattie Bates wills her ability to stay out of mischief.
- To Leonia Fisher, Mildren Fisher wills her typing book.
- To Elaine Ferrell, Bernice Long wills her ability to get along with others.
- To Gloria Bailey, and Hestel Washington, Madeline Brown wills her ability to sing alto.
- To Roger Bailey and Gordon Baltimore, James Davis wills his ability to sing tenor.
- To Frank Grier, Costello Green wills his shop grease.
- To Chere Phillips, Clarice Phillips wills her short hair style.
- To Audrey Robinson, Carolyn Bundy wills Dorsey Nickens.
- To Dorothy Edmunds, Dorothy Scott wills her ability to smile often.
- To Deloris Coleman, Rosa Lee Johnson wills Ed Nickens.
- To Shirley Robinson, Jacqueline Washington wills her ability to speak for herself.
- To Norma Washington, Alberta Jackson wills her ability to stop fussing so much.
- To Adrain Willimas, Wesley Johnson wills his artistic ability.
- To Manuel Stribbling, Leon Thompson wills his ability to kick a football.
- To Gerald Barbour, Maurice Johnson wills his weight.
- To Sandra Williams, Nellie Barbour wills her ability to play guard on the basketball team.
- To Lloyd Folks, Robert Haines wills his soft voice.
- To Paul Pinkett, Floyd Washington wills his ability to talk about the right thing at the right time.
- To the Principal and Staff at Regional High, the Senior Class leaves their sincere thanks for all you have done for us.

We leave to the Juniors the dignity of the Senior Class; and to all our classes, our sincere good wishes for you to reach this cherished goal.

November 5, 1957

Dear James,

While looking through the paper the other day, I saw an article about Rebecca Marshall. She was voted "Secretary of the Year" at one of the Large Business Firms in Florida.

On a Business Trip to Los Angeles last week, I saw Mattie Williams. She said that Madelyn Brown was working as a Stewardess on a plane on which Mattie flew to New Mexico. I met Clarence and John Thornton in New York last month. They are in the Trucking Business.

Bernice Long has a job teaching school here in Sacramento. Thanks for telling me that Pattie Bates married a boy from my home town.

About six months ago, I went back to my home town, Bristow, Virginia to visit my parents. While there, I met Evelyn Harris who is now married. I also met Alberta Jackson, Juanita Ferrell, Evelyn Davis, and Maurice Johnson. They were going to lunch. The girls are working as secretaries and Maurice is a player on the New York Giants' Football team.

Peggy Jackson and Joyce Johnson are now working as Head Nurses at the George Washington Hospital. Costello Green, Reginald Travis, and Irving Lansdowne are now mechanic partners in a garage that they own. Louis Washington is now playing with the San Francisco Giants' Baseball team. Incidentally, Clarice Phillips is now in Politics. I heard her make a speech on the radio the other day. My cousin entered Yale University last September, and he said two of the Professors are my old Schoolmates, Robert Haines and Floyd Bundy. I saw Nellie Barbour singing at a Night Club about two weeks ago. The Orchestra leader was James Porter.

I met Wesley Johnson and Floyd Kye last summer. They are in the Air Force, stationed in Pasadena. They said that they will be leaving for Alaska in six months to join Maurice Compton.

I received a note from Dorothy Scott the other day, she said that Floyd Washington is Chief Chef at the Warren Memorial Hospital in Front Royal. Dorothy is now teaching school in Tucson, Arizona. Jacqueline Washington has planned to transfer from school teaching to Social Work. I saw an advertisement in a magazine about Leon Thompson customizing cars on the West Coast.

My Wife, Carolyn Bundy, went to the opening of a new Beauty Salon last week, she said it was owned by two friends of mine, Mildren Fisher and Rosa Lee Johnson.

Gene Roberts is a great Engineer now and also married to one of my schoolmates.

Well I guess I have brought you up to date on the latest happening about our old schoolmates. Please write soon.

James Davis
